Subject: Nexus Communications 2008-275-C

The parties are very close to resolving all outstanding issues with respect to Nexus' ETC application. However additional time is necessary to resolve all issues in the matter and conclude, execute and submit the stipulation to the Commission. Judicial economy would best be served by continuing the hearing scheduled for tomorrow and rescheduling it before the end of the year. The ORS consents to the continuance request. Accordingly, I would respectfully request that the above matter be continued and rescheduled at a time mutually convenient to the Commission and the parties during calendar year 2008.
